

Consulting Service Package:
Business Model Transformation

Program Purpose

The Business Model Transformation workshop is designed to assist your organization capture new growth opportunities, reduce costs, improve operational efficiencies, and find new customers. The resulting new business model is a focused plan to execute the business strategy.

Core Features

Strategic Alignment

Customized approach

Communications

Graphical plan for organizational alignment

Innovation Management

Push for disruption, not incremental improvement

Structured Methodology

Focused, yet flexible tools & process

Collaborative Participation

Leverage wealth of organizational knowledge

Flexibility

Small, diverse working teams

Rapid Results

2 session on-site workshop

Facilitated Workshop

Season practitioner to guide the conversation

Key Deliverables

- Expert practitioner on-site to facilitate the Workshop
- Graphical representation of how the system works today (or not)
- Redefined challenged beliefs and disproven assumptions
- Identified components of business models from other industries to leverage
- Reimagined view of your industry
- A transformational Business Model aligned with strategy designed to support future objectives

Additional Denovo Consulting Services

Once your Business Model Transformation Workshop is complete, Denovo will assist you with the next stage in bringing the transformation to life. For more information on how Denovo can assist, please refer to our other consulting services such as Project Preparation, Project Management or Strategy Development.